

Make 2015 your year to Be Somebody that develops new skills, talents and passions!

The Bauer Academy's Argyll & Bute community 'Be Somebody' training programme is an exciting chance to gain new multi-media skills and discover talents inside one of the world's brightest media companies.

Exciting journeys start right here...

In partnership with Cashback for Creativity, ArtsQwest and The Argyll Youth Arts Hub, this training is delivered inside a leading commercial radio station. Over three days you'll learn about radio, television, text and photography... it's intensive, but hugely rewarding.

Interested?

You need to be aged 15 – 25 and live in Argyll & Bute, but you don't need any specific qualifications or previous experience. To register your interest simply complete our online registration form at 1.artqwest.com/be\_somebody

When?

June 5 – 7 2015

Where?

The training will take place at Radio Clyde in Clydebank and on location in Oban where you will work with the young people attending 'Make a Scene' – the launch weekend of the Argyll Youth Arts Hub.

How much?

Completely free! We will reimburse all travel costs, arrange accommodation and any support needs you might have, we'll even feed you!

Can I get more info?

Yes, contact John Grant at john@johngrant.org.uk, phone or text on 07540 635492, or on facebook.com/johngrant1960 or  twitter.com/theoldgrantster

Argyll Youth Arts Hub